

PURPLE LEDGER

SEVENTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, JULY 28, 1898.

ONE CENT.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher is willing to give advertising "quotations" free any more than a merchant does over his counterfeit goods of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

A Continuation of Our $7.65 SUIT SALE

... We will continue to sell $10, $12 and $15 Suits for $7.65 during this entire month.

... There are two reasons for this. One is that we find we have many more good Suits to put in this sale than we thought we had. The other reason is that our many country patrons are in the midst of the heaviest work of the year and did not have an opportunity to avail themselves of these splendid bargains; hence, the sale continues during the month. Don't miss the opportunity of buying for $7.65 a Suit of clothes that would cost you $12 to $15 elsewhere, and at these prices you would not pay too much for them; they are worth it.

Respectfully,

THE LEDGER PRINTS THE REAL NEWS

ON BATHING IN THE RATTLEFIELD.

No longer crowded the guns of war on Bathing's plain.
And night had let her curtain down upon the world again.
The wounded lay beneath the stars upon the crimsoned hill.
And many a heart that awful night forever more was still.

A Northern boy had fallen in the fearful clash that day.
A Southern lad was dying from the homestead far away.
Yes, side by side they'd battled for the old flag, White and Blue,
To country and humanity each gallant heart was true.

Said one, "My father wore the Gray behind the plumed Lee."
The other said, "My father marched with Sherman to the sea."
He helped to lead the rebels from old Look-out's lofty brow.
The Southern softly smiled and said: "There are no 'rebels' now."

"We know but one fair banner, boy, it waves o'er us today,
No tide of hate is flowing now between the Blue and Gray."
On Bathing's plain of blood beneath the starry sky,
Let us both renew devotion to Old Glory ere we die."

They found them in the morning on the red field cold and still.
Their hands were clasped in death upon that now historic hill.
A peaceful smile their faces crowned as in the light they lay—
The boys whose fathers once were foes were sought the Blue and Gray.

Premont Park.
The Rosars, who are at Fremont's this week, are the best ever in our midst, to say nothing of the balance of the program which the Fremont Park Vaudeville is offering this week. The versatility of their ability is limited only by ignorance in inventive genius. The gymnastic scene of Kelley and Madden is of a class to amuse without the rough appearances which appeal to the tough or draw the vulgar. Little Elsie is cute and sweet and does no difficult turn which makes you sorry to see a child upon the stage, though her prowess in her line makes her inimitable. The only Ted and Allen are in the midst of as pleasing and good a show as ever was seen in Mayville. The afterpiece is morally fine and superbly acted. The whole for 10 cents. Don't forget the daring aerialist tonight in his balcony at 8 o'clock. Fire works, too. Come out.

NO TRUTH IN IT
The Story of a Criminal Assault by a Negro in Nicholas County Untrue.

AND ANOTHER LIE IN NAILED.

The reported outrage in Nicholas county, fully detailed in the enterprising Cincinnati Post, loses its character as a real live news item when one reads the following dispatch:

Special to Public Ledger,
CINCINNATI, Ky., July 28, 1898.
Nothing in that headline story. Please don't publish.
H. B. BYRON.

ACQUITTED.

Isaac McAllister Tried Yesterday by a Jury Before Judge Newell.

About a week or ten days ago Officer Wallace was congratulating himself on a very nice piece of detective work he had just turned over in the arrest and partial conviction of Isaac McAllister, colored, whom the officer claimed had been caught dead to rights in stealing, and also had positive evidence that he was the bold intruder who helped himself to about $15 in money at the residence of Mr. J. Harry Richardson.

For these misdemeanors Sir Isaac was tried in Judge Wadsworth's Court and was held over to the Grand Jury in the sum of $100 which he failed to give and was sent to Jail.

There is a statute that in substance is as follows: "That when a person is held to the Grand Jury in a misdemeanor case, and is unable to give bail, it is the duty of the Jailor to notify the County Judge of that fact, who can order the prisoner to trial by Jury."

This was done in Isaac's case, and yesterday afternoon he was tried by Judge C. D. Newell and a Jury, and after a careful hearing of the case the Jury acquitted him.

This is something out of the ordinary in the way of disposing of cases around here, as without the existence of the above statute McAllister would have only gotten out for trial on a habeas corpus proceeding, which is decided by the Judge alone.

Attorney John L. Whitaker appeared for McAllister, while County Attorney Frank P. O'Donnell represented the Commonwealth.

The report of the State National Bank, printed elsewhere, makes a healthy showing. With $405,331.49 individuals deposit its subject to check and the surplus fund of $30,000 it doesn't look like the country was going to hell under a Sound Money policy.

It is stated at the Postoffice Department at Washington that about 35 per cent of the Democratic Postmasters in Kentucky of all classes have been removed since the 4th of March, 1897. Probably as many as 30 per cent. of the total number of Postmasters are changed on account of the compensation, several offices paying but $2 or $3 per annum. The remaining 15 per cent. will be removed before the close of the year, with the exception of Elizabethtown, Richmond and a few others, whose terms do not expire.

Deafness cannot be cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running snore or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result. It is useless to use medicine on the ear, unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. States case after case are caused, by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness caused by catarrh, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

REVENUE RULINGS

Matter of Interest to Persons Who Prepare Documents.

THE LEDGER WILL POST YOU.

(THE LEDGER will under this heading print decisions of the Commissioners of Internal Revenue as frequently as they are rendered.)

Bonds of all municipal officers and of all other persons given for the faithful performance of duty must have the fifty-cent stamp.

No distinction is made between real estate and chattel mortgages in the matter of stamping.

When a mortgage or trust deed is assigned the same stamp must be put on it as when it was first made.

Warehouse receipts for whisky in bond must bear a twenty-five cent stamp.

Persons or firms who buy and sell notes for themselves are required to pay the regular broker's license of $50.

A ruling of interest to the caterers to gunsmen is to the effect that they may bunch the pieces of war or gun so as to include five cents worth in a bunch, which can then go with one eighth cent stamp. The several pieces included in such a bunch must be labeled to indicate that each is part of a regularly stamped bunch.

When an insurance policy is assigned it must be restamped.

All bitters are classed as medicinal preparations and are taxed.

Spirits of camphor and cold pressed castor oil are included in the taxable articles.

When there is a Deputy Collector in your city, pay all your Revenue taxes to him. It gives your home city a good send-off. If you send your taxes direct to the Collector in a distant place, your home town gets no credit for it.

Organdies yours for 15c.

50c. SILKS for 25c.

No, Silks haven't tumbled. It's just the price that has dropped on a half dozen styles—summers in weight and coloring. Desirable Silks—good enough to keep, but we shall of course want different styles next time, so hurry these out.
